

Paragaudi
LEÓN, 1997

In 1892 the Casa Botines in León (Spain) was built by Antonio Gaudì. It was renovated in 1997.

Ingo Maurer accepted the challenge of the ingenious architecture and created a special light. The result was a ribbon of 5 meters length and 110 cm width, which was bent and gold-plated.